International Student Teaching

Seville, Spain – Grades: EC-12
San Jose, Costa Rica – Grades: EC-8
Dates: April 7th – May 10th 2017

(Last four weeks of Student Teaching)

Criteria for Acceptance & Participation
- Minimum 2.5 cumulative UNT GPA
- Minimum 2.75 GPA in academic major and educational certification area
- Completed application, including two (2) recommendations from faculty
  (see guidelines for recommendations in Tk20)
- Interview by Selection Committee the semester before program
- Attendance at ALL orientations during the semester of departure
- Demonstration of effective performance during student teaching in the US

Estimated Program Cost:
- Program Fee - $1,200
- Total due by March 20, 2017 - $1,200
- International Student Teaching Expenses - $2,233 (does not include a meal plan)

Interviews: October and November. Final Selection: November 21st.

Applications Website: http://www.coe.unt.edu/tk20-campus-tools

Log into your TK20 account → Applications → Select “International Student Teaching” → Fill out application and upload all required documents → Click on “Create” to submit the application.