Part 5 – Exam Study References

It is not intended that candidates purchase and read all of the books and articles listed in this reference list. Since the information tested in the examination pertains to entry-level practice, this additional information serves only as a supplement to one’s understanding of basic knowledge and application. A reference list is not intended to be inclusive but is provided to allow flexibility. The candidate is encouraged to supplement his or her education and experience by reviewing other resources and finding information in areas which he or she may consider himself or herself not as skilled or experienced. This reference list is not intended to endorse any particular text or author. Although the list may include more than one reference that covers a Standard, one such reference may be enough. The candidate may also have resources available that are not on the list but which will adequately cover the Standard. The list does not represent the only set of references to be used as study material. Questions in the examination are also developed from information gained through practical application. Use of the references does not guarantee successful completion of the test. Below is the suggested reference list:

Standard 1 - Integration of Foundations:

Standard 2 - Family Studies and Human Services:

Standard 3 - Human Development, Education, and Services:

Standard 4 - Nutrition, Wellness, and Food Science:

Standard 5 - Food, Lodging, and Hospitality:

- Cichy, R.F. et. al. (2011). Managing service in food and beverage operations.

Standard 6 - Consumer and Resource Management:

Standard 7 - Textiles and Apparel:

• Kadolph, SJ and Langford, AL. (2010). Textiles.
